"THE MEASURE OF A MAN"

INTRODUCTION

1. Paul's Defence Before Agrippa.
   • A Wonderful Occasion. Agrippa and Bernocea, Festus. Paul's Fate hung in the balance. Notice his poise. God was with him in it all. Daniel and Lions' den.
   • Paul reveals here the Miracles of his marvelous power. Eliajah, Moses, Christ

   2. Paul showed himself a man. He had no fear, brave, courageous, three verses

MAIN IDEAS

1. A Voice Calls
   A. Many voices call to us today
      Greed, Lust, idolatry, drink;
      There is also the Voice of GOD
   B. The only authoritative voice is
      The voice of God. Happy is that man who "God calls. Truett, Lee, Ted, Carey, Nightingale. Call of Moses
   C. When this voice calls we must answer
      The call of Samuel— "Here am I"

2. A Surrender Made
   A. We are not great in God's kingdom because of our Contentment. Satisfied
   B. To follow Jesus means agonizing
      Toil and Greatness.
   C. Paul gave up all to follow Christ comforts, calumnies; friendship-fury; honor-horrors; Power-persecution. Yet he surrendered all to Jesus Praying with both knees on the floor

3. A Help Found
   A. God will never leave us alone
   B. For every task he provides adequate strength. "The Lord is my"
C. Just ask the Master to help you. Children ask parents

4. A Task Assumed
   A. The working Christian is always the happy one. MUNSON family
   B. Paul was always busy witnessing for the Master. "This is my Task"
   C. Nothing is too big for us to do Moody, Smith, Sunday
      One with God is the majority

CONCLUSION
God calls to you today, will you turn to him and obey his voice? If you will you will find the father anxious— to help you and cover you with his blessings.