What God Expects of Me as a Christian

Text—John 9:4—"I must work".

This was the ideal of the Life of Christ. He worked always toward this end.
We must work in the Lord's vineyard.

Sir Walter Scott, Carlyle, Milton other great men.
Two notions in the mind of Christ.
There are some thing about Jesus in his work that we should notice.

1- He was consecrated to his task.
   Edison, Great business men.
   faithful Sunday-School worker.
   Spurgeon, Moody, preachers

2- He was sublimely unselfish.
   Crippled boy in the attic of building in New York.
   We should render unselfish service to heavens king.
   Napoleons Soldiers.

3- He was unreservedly obedient.
   "Thy will not mine"
   The death of the Cross.
   His agony and torture.
   "Obedience is better than sacrifice and to harken than the fat of rams".

Let us resolve to fulfil God's expectations of our lives.
