Until the silent guard holds all that was mortal of our true and tried soldiers.

It is right to eulogize our departed heroes but we owe a debt of gratitude to the living as well. To day for her love of freedom patriotism and deeds of valor, and true bravery of her sons and the […] so nobly borne. The South holds a unique place in the History of the world. If we as Daughters of the Confederacy will as our duty, the South will grow “taller” among the nations of the World. This flag we so justly prize will be with us on all our public occasions unfurled it will wave over our head stimulating our patriotism […] us of that so dear to every Southern heart.

    Noble Veterans again we thank you for this priceless gift. In after years our children’s children will esteem this Confederate Flag a rich heritage.