

Silent Study Floor Policy (Tarver)

The third floor of Tarver Library is a silent study floor. Patrons of this floor are expected to be considerate of this shared space.

- The silent floor is for patrons who seek a quiet environment.
- Do not play music, videos, or other media without headphones.
- Do not plan for group meetings, conversations, or projects on this floor.
- Keep your voices down and whisper.

If you would like to report excess noise or disruptions, please visit the front desk on the second floor for assistance. You may also call the front desk at 478-301-2961.
